LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

Interesting Sessions in Both Branches
—A Joint Session to Hear the Message.

Compliments for the Executive—The Christy Matter Investigation—The Council Committee—Legislative Chat.

The Council.

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON'S SESSION.
The council met with full attendance at 2:15, the president in the chair.

Mr. Victory reported the fulfillment of the duty of notifying the governor of the legislature's organization and moved that the report be adopted, and the committee discharged, which was accordingly done. The council then adjourned to 10 a. m.

THIS FORENOON'S SESSION.

All interest this morning centered in the governor's message which was to be read at the joint session of the legislative assembly which occurred at 11 o'clock at the U. S. court in the federal building. The proceedings in both the council and house were therefore of a perfunctory nature.

At the council three members testified in the morning session. The reading of the journal occupied about twenty minutes and ultimately promoted a breeze upon the etymological significance in parliamentary procedure of the words "receive" and "adopt" as applied to the report of the committee on notification. These usually inoffensive words "received" and "adopted" were the subject of a humorous amplification. The council at last refused to "adopt" the report, but agreed to "receive" and "adopt" it, which casuistry acted as a balm upon tired tongues.

Yesterday's session was opened by a plea for another stove. To-day Mr. Bunker's face reflected the radiance from the single heater in the council room, and as he did not want a certain interesting view attributed to him, he moved that a screen be thrown around the "Ironclad" inferno in his immediate vicinity. He thought the territorial secretary could afford the relief, but was informed that that gentleman was officially "busted." With a look of hopelessness Mr. Bunker lapsed into his seat. Noticing the despair depicted upon the usually benignant and complacent face of the San Miguel senator, the president said that he thought "we could arrange so that the repose and love of life of the gentleman from San Miguel might survive."

Council then took a recess to reassemble in joint session with the house of representatives at the place designated. Mr. Hinkle, chairman of a committee from the house, reported that the house was ready to meet the council at the United States court room. It was moved that the report of the committee be accepted and the committee thanked for its courtesy. This was done.

RECESS UNTIL 10:15 WAS THEN TAKEN.

THIS AFTERNOON'S SESSION.
At the meeting of the council this afternoon the following standing committees were appointed:

Judiciary.—J. P. Victory, W. B. Bunker, George W. Miles, J. Francisco Chavez, Pedro Peren.
Finance.—M. F. Desmarais, Agapito Abeyta, George W. Miles, W. C. Hadley, Nicholas Galles.
Religious.—Mariano Larragoite, W. B. Bunker, Cesar Garcia, J. Francisco Chavez, Nicholas Galles.
County and County Lines.—W. B. Bunker, Agapito Abeyta, J. Francisco Chavez.

Capitol.—Cesar Garcia, J. P. Victory, Pedro Peren.
Privileges and Elections.—M. F. Desmarais, Cesar Garcia, J. P. Victory, J. Francisco Chavez, Nicholas Galles.

Enrolled and Engrossed Bills.—George W. Miles, W. B. Bunker, W. C. Hadley.
Mines and Public Lands.—Nicholas Galles, W. C. Hadley, Agapito Abeyta.
Agriculture and Manufactures.—Cesar Garcia, Mariano Larragoite, W. C. Hadley.

Library.—J. Francisco Chavez, Nicholas Galles, Agapito Abeyta.
Public Property.—J. P. Victory, Mariano Larragoite, Nicholas Galles.
Irrigation.—Mariano Larragoite, Pedro Peren, George W. Miles.
Internal Improvements.—George W. Miles, Agapito Abeyta, W. C. Hadley.
Territorial Affairs.—W. B. Bunker, Cesar Garcia and Pedro Peren.

The House.

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON'S SESSION.
The house met with two members short. Regular order of business was called for. Mr. Lacombe, as chairman of the committee to notify the governor of the organization of the legislature, reported its duty fulfilled. On motion the report was accepted and the committee discharged.

Upon motion of Mr. Carr a committee composed of Messrs. Carr, Hinkle, Pino, Lacombe and Martin appointed to investigate the eligibility of Mr. Christy to a seat in the house of representatives, was appointed by the chair.

Mr. Hinkle moved that two members of the majority be added to the committee on rules. There being no objection Messrs. Clancy and Carr were added to the committee.

Upon Mr. Hinkle's suggestion that a conference committee should be named on the compensation to be allowed employees of the respective branches of the legislature, Mr. Pino offered a resolution to that effect, which was adopted and the following were designated: Messrs. Locke, Gallegos and Vigil.
The house then adjourned to 10 a. m. to-day.

THIS FORENOON'S HOUSE.

At the house the same general characteristics prominent at the council prevailed. There was a full attendance. Mr. Martin introduced a resolution sympathizing with the Hon. Miguel Martinez, of San Miguel, in the loss of his son which lately transpired. The resolution was adopted.

The journal of the last day's proceedings was approved. Upon motion the speaker appointed Messrs. Hinkle, Carr and Clancy a committee to notify the council that the house was ready to enter into a joint session.

On nomination of Mr. Pino, Mr. A. B. Redding, of Albuquerque, was elected expert typewriter, and on motion by Mr. Martin, the committee of conference on employees' compensation was instructed to arrange if possible for the creation of the office of assistant interpreter.

Mr. Lacombe moved that the territorial library be requested to supply the house with copies of the compiled laws of 1894, and amended by Mr. Miguel Martinez to the effect that the request include the session laws of 1887, 1889, 1891 and 1893. The motion was recommended prevailed.

Mr. Hinkle announced that the Christy investigation committee would meet at the house at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The house then took a recess until after the reading of the governor's message.

THE JOINT SESSION.

Upon the convening of the joint session at the federal building, Mr. Curry in the chair, Mr. Desmarais moved that a committee of three members of each house be appointed by the presiding officer to escort the governor to the joint assembly. The motion was carried and Messrs. Galles, Larragoite and Desmarais, of the council, and Hinkle, Clancy and Pino, of the house, were designated for that duty.

Brave men and beautiful women assembled in a vast concourse to attend the reading of the governor's message. Every seat was taken at the hour of 11 o'clock, at which time his excellency promptly appeared under committee escort and as promptly proceeded with the duty of the day.

Upon the hitherto judicial tribunal set to the left of the governor, his grace, Archbishop Chapelle, upon whose rostrum figure the symbols of good health again had resumed their place; to the right was the president of the council and the speaker of the house; all evidencing the calmness and judge-like dignity of "grave and revered seigniors."

The governor read his message in a quiet unassuming manner, the deep black of his garments well setting off the pale-ness of his countenance and the solemnity of his remarks. He read the message with the calmness and the solemnity of a statesman.

Nearly every man of eminence in any walk in the territory was present and listened with earnest attention to the prudent suggestions of the territorial executive.

At the conclusion of the reading of the message Mr. Larragoite moved that the translation of it be dispensed with. This was agreed to.

Upon motion of Mr. Desmarais a vote of thanks was extended to the governor upon the excellence of his message through the presiding officer, President Curry. This duty the president fulfilled with universal commendation. He promised that the recommendations of the governor should receive faithful consideration; expressed his gratification at the showing made as to the prosperous condition of the territory; complimented the executive upon his fearless enforcement of the laws, the rapid extirpation of crime and the incarceration of criminals, and assured him that he would receive the co-operation of the legislative departments of the territory as well as the God-speed of all good citizens.

Mr. Victory moved that the joint session dissolve to meet forthwith at their respective chambers. The motion was carried.

Legislative Chat.

Humpty-Dumpty would mount a high wall. Humpty-Dumpty had a mighty high fall. With his blinding strut, and his pompous tread.

And his brainless hat stuck on back of his head. He thought of the days when his foes would quake At the nod of his head, and his knees With fear if they dared disobey his behest: Now they laugh him to scorn, and cry "Give us a rest!"

You are bloated and dull, a fraud, greedy and old. Make room for your betters! Get out in the cold!

Which is which, Representative Clancy or Judge Fuller of the land court? A brilliant audience listened to the reading of the executive message.

District Attorney L. C. Fort is here from Las Vegas looking after his official fences. Both houses held brief sessions following the joint session and adjourned to 2 p. m.

Two heads in close neighborhood, Judge Fall's and Don Felix's. Now, what? Veranda.

T. F. M.—"That's a pretty slick message, but you ought to hear one down in Arkansas."

Postmaster Anastacio Roibal, of Pecos town, is an on-looker at the legislative assembly to-day.

Say, governor, why didn't you verify the close of your message? The poetry was there without its peculiar vestment. Messrs. Alex Gussdorf and Alloys Scheuerich, prominent citizens of Taos county, were about the legislative halls to-day.

The clear cut, classical face of the Hon. W. E. Dams, speaker of the house of representatives, is an index of the metal that is in the man.

Councilman J. Frank Chavez was accompanied to Santa Fe by his wife and little child. They have apartments in the Delgado block on water street.

A Member—"Please, dear, good Mr. Carr, won't you stop objecting so we can get down to business? Remember Holman!" But Mr. Carr is a watchful, painstaking, scrupulous legislator.

How like the voice of Actor Robson is that of the president of the senate! One almost expects to see him toss a penny to determine whether he shall buy or sell stocks as "Bertie, the Lamb."

The Albuquerque Citizen is inconsistent, as usual. On its editorial page it says: "Fort Catron is impregnable. Long may his battlements frown down upon the historic plaza of Santa Fe." On the other page it has a headline which says: "Rebublicans of the house surrender and give in—Heavy snow-fall in southern Europe." The Citizen should have said: "And the next day it snowed."

"Gov. Thornton virtually admits that at the least the council would have stood six to six if the law was strictly followed—that is, he tacitly admits that the equities for awarding it purposes were with J. M. C. Chavez and J. A. Ancheta as against Larragoite and Miles."—Albuquerque Citizen.

The governor was seen about this to-day and he said he admitted nothing of the sort, fully endorsing the action of Secretary Miller in the premises. The Citizen is evidently pretty badly rattled.

A dispatch from Springer of date the 3d inst., says: "The new board of county commissioners met yesterday and organized by the selection of Thos. Fisher for chairman. The first official act of the new board was to make a re-canvas of the election returns of this council district, and as might be expected, they re-elected the order of the retiring board by granting a certificate of election to A. C. Voorhees." Indeed? And thereby an attempt is made to give the notorious election frauds in Colfax the stamp of official approval, eh? What boots it? Mr. Voorhees is out and the duly elected member, Mr. Abeyta, is in!

Mr. L. W. Lenoir, clerk of the district court for the 3rd judicial district, came up from Las Cruces last night with the court records necessary for a full investigation of the pending charges against A. L. Christy, the would-be representative from Grant county. Mr. Lenoir will testify before the house committee appointed to look into the charge preferred. It is stated that the proof of Mr. Christy's shortage is of an indubitable character and that the alleged receipt he holds covers only a very small portion of the shortcomings charged to Mr. Christy's account while clerk of the court.

Publications have been industriously made by the Albuquerque Citizen in its last issue or two to the effect that Secretary Miller sent Severino Martinez, the Colfax Democratic representative, instead of G. W. Cook, elected on the Republican ticket, on a telegram from the county commissioners to the effect that a certificate would be issued to Martinez by the board. In this statement as usual the Colfax stationery was used, the truth the only respect in which its publication has a show of truth being the statement that Secretary Miller acted upon a telegram from the board of county commissioners from Colfax county. The telegram was a statement that a certificate would be issued to Martinez and embodied the following text: "The board of county commissioners of Colfax county, Texas, do hereby certify that the said Severino Martinez is a qualified elector of said county and is entitled to a certificate of election to said office."

The fifteen club met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. L. Marsh. The literary exercises consisted of a paper by Mrs. Marsh on the burning of Washington and the battle of New Orleans, and a reading from "The Idylls of the King" by Mrs. Warner. Under current events, Spain was the special topic of discussion. Mrs. Shannon acted as critic of the afternoon. The club meets on next Thursday at the residence of Mrs. Shannon.

La Tertulia Idiomatica met with the Misses Mandelstet last Saturday afternoon and had a delightfully social time, some delicious Spanish sherry being served in small degree to the flattery of the Castilian tongue. The membership of the society has been limited to ten, which for an afternoon gathering is perfect. The meeting this afternoon will be with Miss Maggie Fleming at her mission school in the northeastern part of the city.

A very enjoyable impromptu dance occurred at the Social club Thursday evening, attended by a good number of the members with sprinkling of visitors. The pleasures of the occasion were not terminated until a late hour. The Social club is more than proving the important factor in Santa Fe social matters that was expected at the time of its organization.

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Amaranth club was held at the residence of Mrs. A. P. Hogue on Monday evening (New Year's Eve), a very large number of the members and invited guests being present. The literary and musical features of the evening were highly entertaining and instructive.

Misses Ruby Lynch and Sadie Holzman returned last Tuesday from Denver. They are being visited by Miss Minnie Holzman, of Las Vegas. The latter returns home to-morrow.

Mrs. J. Frankel and her daughter Miss Rose Frankel, from Okaloosa, Fla., have arrived at the sanatorium where they will be for some weeks for the benefit of the former's health.

Rev. C. L. Boward, the presiding elder of the Methodist church, is up from Albuquerque and supplies Rev. Madden's pulpit to-morrow.

Representative and Mrs. J. F. Hinkle, of Lincoln county, are stopping at the sanatorium for the legislative session.

Miss Hamilton, of San Antonio, Texas, is visiting Mrs. Robt. Harvey.

open meeting last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hall, for the purpose of initiating some of their young gentlemen friends into the mysterious art of sewing, and right merrily did they do so. The attempt of the young men at hems, tucks and stitches were pleasantly varied by games and the service of delicious refreshments. During the latter part of the evening, the products of masculine efforts with needle and thread were collected and inspected critically by the members of the bee, with the result that Dr. James Brady was awarded the first prize, a handsome stamp-holder, and Mr. George Brady the booby, a complete set of things necessary for sewing. The members of the bee present were Misses Loomis, Ifield, Stanb, Gallegos, Hart, Helm and Wedeles, and their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hall, and Messrs. F. Hudson, George and James Brady, Stanb, Pope, Kilbourne, Seligman and Spiegelberg.

An occasion thoroughly unique in its pleasures was that with which Capt. and Mrs. John L. Bullis complimented a company of friends last Saturday evening. Progressive hearts was the theme that the service of the sumptuous hot supper about 11 o'clock and an exciting contest it was for the handsome prizes offered. Miss Stanb won the first ladies' prize, a handsome card case; Miss Ifield the second prize; and Miss Morrison the booby prize, a Browne spoon. Among the gentlemen prize winners were Mr. Seligman, Mr. Arthur Seligman, Mr. Spiegelberg, a coat marker, and Mr. Arthur Stanb a Browne cravat clasp. The guests were Mrs. Duncanson, Misses Guilford, Morrison, Anderson, Egan, Jones, Wedeles, Solignac, Stanb, Ifield and Loomis, and Messrs. J. D. Hughes, Combs, Kilbourne, Jones, Morrison, Stanb, George Brady, Spiegelberg, James Brady, Hudson, Pope, P. H. Harroun and Arthur Seligman.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Franz charmingly entertained a few friends at a card party last Monday night. The prizes were unusually handsome and were won as follows: Ladies' first prize, Mrs. George Money; gentlemen's prize, Mr. E. A. Fiske; the ladies' booby prize by Mrs. Sam Cartwright and the gentlemen's prize by Mr. T. J. Curran. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Money, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cartwright, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Curran, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Fiske, Miss Wedeles and Mr. C. E. Doll.

It was the general remark that this year's New Year's celebration was one of the most enjoyable ever known in Santa Fe. The presence in the city of many visitors and their calls upon our people proved the source of mutual pleasure. The custom of New Year's calling is one that should be perpetuated, instead of being allowed to lapse into non-observance as is the case at present, in many communities of the east. Its influences upon neighborly hospitality permeates and gives social life to the whole year.

By reference to an advertisement in this issue it will be noted that County Tax Collector Solomon Spiegelberg is now prepared to receive the payment of taxes. His office is at his place of business on the plaza. He has appointed as his deputy Mr. A. F. Spiegelberg.

In the case of John S. Thompson vs. the Sandia Mining and Smelting company, Judge Laughlin to-day refused to grant the motion of the defendant to dismiss the case on the ground that Mr. Thompson had filed no replication, and gave the latter further time.

Under the ruling of Judge Laughlin to-day the treasurer of Rio Arriba county is debarred from paying any warrants for public school teachers' salaries until further order of the court. This was done on application of Jose Manuel Duran, setting up the fact that he and many others in the county had without cause been removed from their offices as precinct school directors by School Superintendent Larragoite; that they were acting contemporaneously with opposition boards, and that there was a certainty that conflicting warrants would be presented to the county treasurer by the petitioners on one hand and the Larragoite appointees on the other. Judge Laughlin a few days ago passed an order directing the treasurer to answer in the matter. This he failed to do, and the above order made to-day is the result. Until the rights of the conflicting claimants are settled by the court, the Rio Arriba school teachers will have to wait for their salaries.

Mr. L. A. Hughes, who has been in California for some weeks, reports that the heavy rains out there have given a wonderful impetus to irrigation and to all lines of agriculture and fruit raising and that the people are confident in the belief that California is on the verge of a great boom. The recent great damage done to the Florida orange crop is also a source of great business satisfaction to the California fruit raisers, as it means that Florida oranges will receive a wider market and better prices for some time to come. Mr. Hughes while away did a good deal of work on the Peralta grant case in behalf of the government; and in co-operation with Mr. Reynolds secured a large amount of valuable testimony that will be used at the hearing of the case in the land court.

Judge Laughlin this morning filed a decision on the application of the Postal Telegraph company to be allowed to retain its wires on the Santa Fe bridge across the Rio Grande just below Albuquerque. The result is a victory for the Postal company over its rival, the Western Union people. The latter company opposed the granting of the petition on two grounds: First, that Judge Seeds had already decided the case. Second, that the Western Union had the exclusive privilege of using the bridge under its contract with the Santa Fe road and the receivers of that road. Judge Laughlin held that the case was not barred by Judge Seed's decision and that the contract set up was against public policy. The receivers are accordingly restrained from removing the Postal's wires until further action by the court. Messrs. Childers & Dobson represent the Postal company and Catron & Speiss the Western Union.

A letter from Las Cruces to Mr. Quintus Monier, of date yesterday, states that Frank Rochas was found dead at his ranch house near La Luz, a few days ago. His friends believe that he was assassinated, as previous attempts have been made. He was a Frenchman, and was favorably known in Santa Fe as an expert worker in wood. He built the handsome stair-case in the Loreto chapel and at St. Vincent sanatorium.

New Years at Park View.

A correspondent of the NEW MEXICAN writing from Park View, Rio Arriba county, states that the New Years services at the cathedral there were of a most imposing nature. The edifice was beautifully adorned and the New Years sermon by Rev. Father Giroud was well prepared and ably delivered. The music was of a soul-inspiring nature. The "Adeste Fideles" sung as an offertory was beautifully rendered, the various voices blending in exquisite harmony.
